

BEHIND THE MASK

FIBERARTS GUILD OF PITTSBURGH MEMBERSHIP EXHIBITION

LATROBE ART CENTER

Latrobe, Pennsylvania

10 | 6 | 22 – 11 | 2 | 22

James Arendt, Juror

Essentially, a mask conceals something from view. While we have spent the last two years literally wearing masks to protect ourselves and others, in a metaphorical sense all people 'wear a mask' to hide feelings, beliefs, thoughts, pains, behaviors, attitudes, desires and longings, a past, secret sides that few may know. As we move beyond the notion of masks for protection from a virus, let's think about that ubiquitous mask in human nature. Let's explore some of our hidden natures through our art work. Let's explore desires of things we'd do if we could be masked and undetected. Would you learn to sky dive or try out for "The Voice"? Let's explore our secrets – the things we do that others do not know. What's behind your mask? Or, let's explore the mask we 'wear.' How do we show ourselves to the world? What is it we do want people to see?
